Life is meant to be lived to the fullest.
Never give up

THE TRAP OF MY MIND

I feel captured, a prisoner
Within the depths of my soul

My mind

Alone

I will free myself

As I know I can

With the spirit and love

Within my grasp

It will be joyful

When I am free

As I will be

Completely me

I choose freedom

And love to free my mind

From the chains that bind

When you lose control

Of your very soul

LIFE IS A GIFT

Today is the best day ever
Because I choose it that way
God has given me one life to live
Not to squander it away
Love is the only answer
The soul knows what it should do
For peace and love that's true

Today is the best day ever
Because we live for today
Yesterday is gone forever
Tomorrow a breath away
It will be here before we know it
And never here to stay
Today is the best day ever
It is the only way

THE NEXT CHAPTER

An era is coming to a close
Another chapter is beginning
Life doesn't stop
Reinvent and change in the wind

I embrace the change
In my heart and soul
I open my arms
To what is new and
Discard the old

God will guide me
And keep me safe
In his arms
As this new life begins
I can't wait for it to start...
