I would like to acknowledge and thank the following people who provided me with much support and feedback and who shared their creativity with me; My Mom and Dad, my children Madison and Farid, Kyle and Mackenzie and Tanner, also James and Sister-in-Law Trudi and friend Barb; my nieces and nephews, Fletcher and Greta and Maisie and Logan, and my coworkers Lora, Diane, Katie and Laurie. Your unwavering support of this project is so much appreciated.

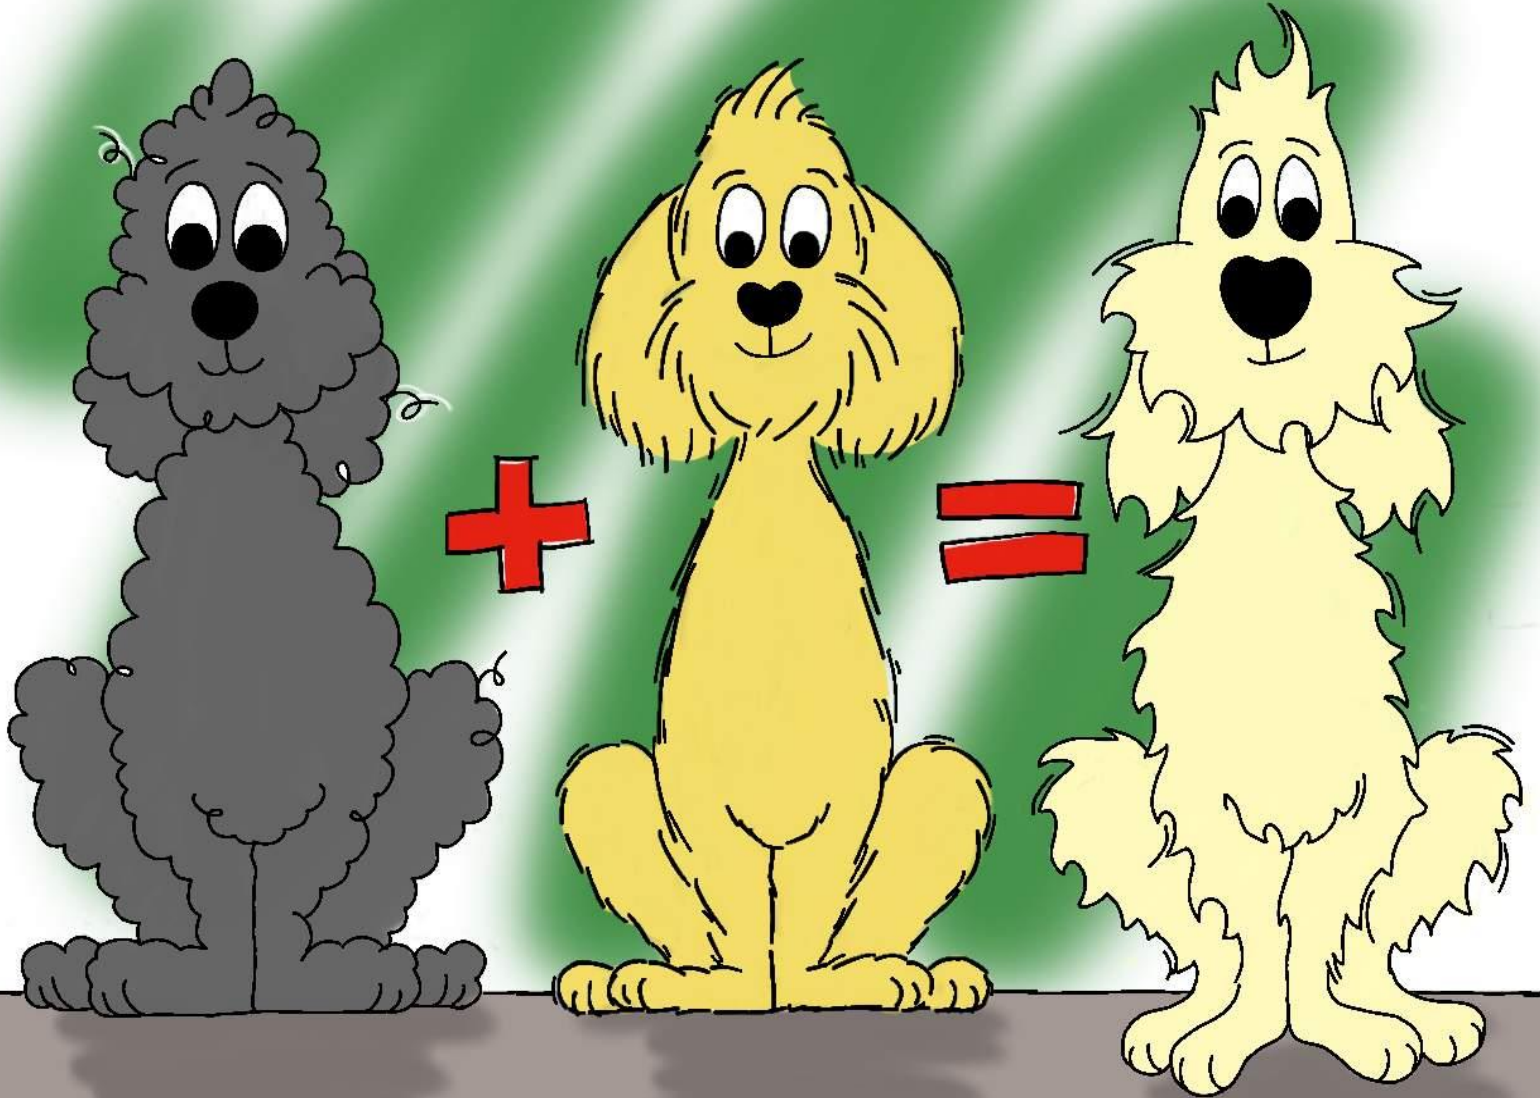

A special thanks to my illustrator Danielle Murphy for her professionalism, enthusiasm and her understanding of the Chance character.

Based on a true story

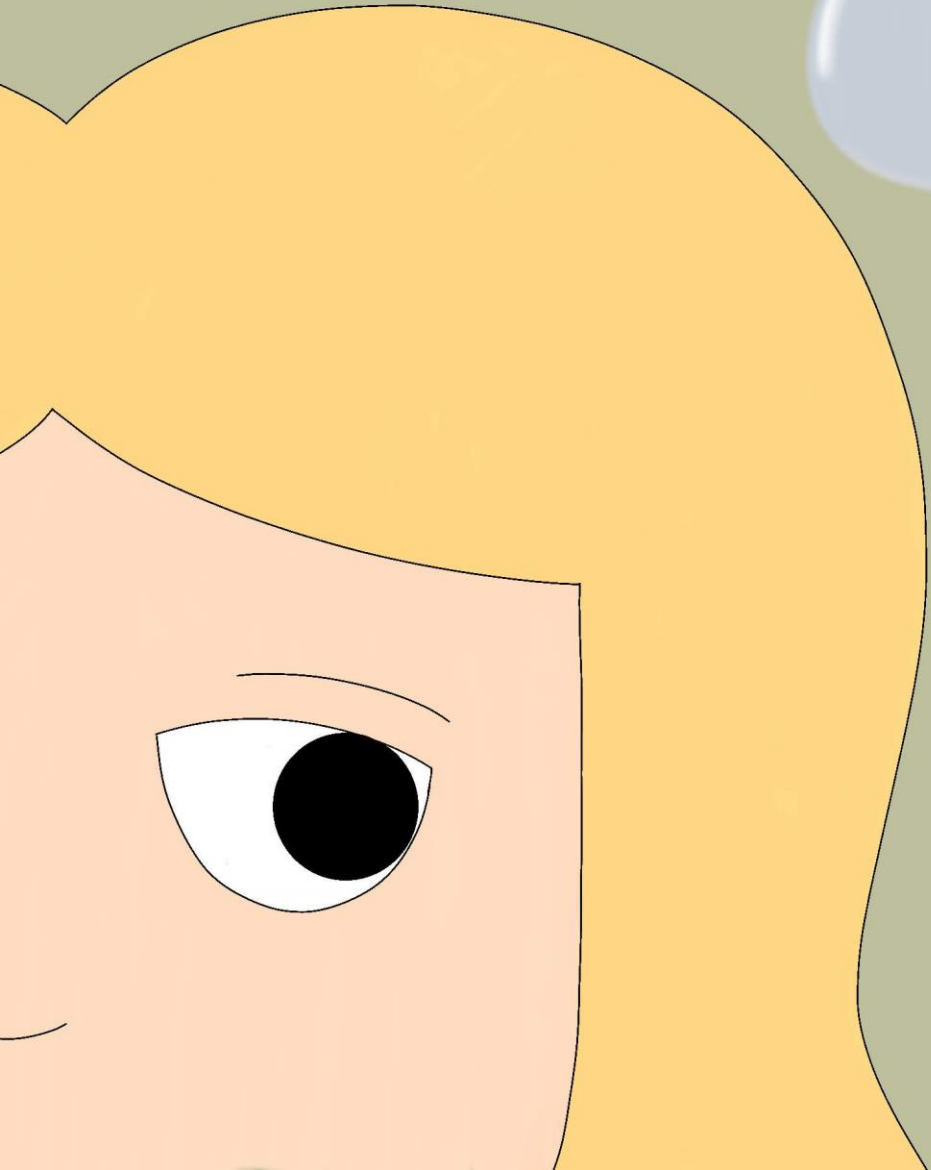

I wanted a puppy so badly.

I walked by the pet store every day and watched the puppies playing in the window.

I wanted a Golden Doodle. Do you know what that is?

It's a mixture of a Poodle and a Golden Retriever....so smart and cute and funny!!!

BUT....

I had a really old dog at home named Blue. I wondered if Blue would be alright with a puppy? Would the puppy bother him? Would they be nice to each other? Would they share their toys?

Well I decided I would TAKE A CHANCE!!
